Assurant Announces Changes to Quarterly Financial Supplement

NEW YORK, April 19, 2016 – Assurant (NYSE:AIZ), a global provider of risk management solutions, today announced it is revising its quarterly financial supplement to reflect the company's multi-year transformation and strategic focus on specialty housing and lifestyle protection products and services.

Beginning in first quarter 2016, the company's financial supplement will provide consolidated operating results excluding Assurant Health run-off operations, its divested employee benefits business and amortization of deferred gains. In addition, Assurant updated revenue categories at Assurant Solutions and Assurant Specialty Property to align with its key business lines.

To provide investors with the opportunity to review the updated presentation format prior to the publication of Assurant's first quarter 2016 results on Tuesday, April 26, the financial supplement for the period ending Dec. 31, 2015 has been revised to reflect these changes and is available in the Investor Relations section of assurant.com
